10/1/10-9/30/17 PI: Keysor; H133B100003/90RT5009 National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation (NIDRR), Rehabilitation Research and Training Center (RRTC)
Center for Enhancing Activity and Participation of Persons with Arthritis (ENACT)
Director, ENACT
Total Award: $4,000,000

Grant established the Arthritis Rehabilitation Research and Training center titled, “Enhancing Activity and Participation among Persons with Arthritis (ENACT)”. The Center supported 3 research studies, 4-pre-doctoral trainees, and several educational and dissemination projects for health care providers and consumers.

Research Project 1: Efficacy of a Modified Vocational Rehabilitation Intervention (Keysor J & Allaire S: co-PIs)

This was a clinical trial examining outcomes of an intervention aimed to enhance work retention among persons with arthritis who are at risk of work loss.

Research Project 2: Can Computer-Based Telephone Counseling Improve Long-Term Adherence to Strength Training in Elders with Knee OA? (Baker K: PI; Keysor: co-I)

This was a clinical trial examining outcomes of a technology intervention aimed to enhance exercise adherence among persons with knee osteoarthritis after participating in a 6-week strength training program.

Research Project 3: Community and Home Participation after Total Knee Replacement (Maxwell J: PI; Felson D: co-PI; Keysor: co-I)

This was an epidemiological study and qualitative study examining factors associated with poor participation outcomes post total knee joint replacement.
