IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PHD IN REHABILITATION SCIENCE CANDIDATES:

Tuition for this program will be discounted 100% for the first four years of enrollment. Students will be responsible for paying a per credit general fee each term at the current general student fee rate. (minimum of 34 credits).

Students are also required to take a minimum of three supplementary courses relevant to their area of research. These supplemental courses are taken at the Institute, or more often at one of the many top-level universities in the Boston Area. Tuition costs for these courses may be covered if the courses are taken at institutions with which we have established agreements. Otherwise these additional costs must be covered by the student.

After course completion, students are in the dissertation phase of the program, typically starting in the third year after their qualifying exam and extending through the fourth year, culminating in their thesis defense. Beginning in the fifth year of enrollment, the student is responsible for the Continuing Enrollment Fee charged at the current rate. Once in continuation phase, the general student fee will also be charged at the rate of 1 credit for each semester until the dissertation is completed.

Auditing courses at the MGH Institute is by approval only. Audit tuition rates are charged at half the per-credit tuition rate for programs that are charged by the credit hour. Standard charges apply for programs with fixed tuition rates.
