

RACHEL MIAZZA

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN PSYCHOLOGICAL
SCIENCES

PERSONAL PROFILE

Passionate and analytical psychology graduate from the University of Missouri, Columbia seeking a research position.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

- Proficient in Microsoft Word, Google Documents, Excel and SPSS
- Ability to quickly learn and adapt to new programs
- Diligent and detail oriented
- Highly competent in data processing, problem solving, and statistics
- Patient, organized, and dependable

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Registered Behavior Technician

The Autism Clinic at Hope
(2020-present)

- Implemented the use of ABA techniques to reduce problem behavior
- Worked with children with AAC devices as well as PECS
- Recorded and organized data on feeding trials, echoic mand training, prompt fading, DTT, and more

1:1 Special Education Aide

High Road School of Boone County (2019-2020)

- Directly worked with a classroom of special education students to teach and manage behaviors
- Guided a student with PTSD, ODD, ADHD, emotional disturbance and a mood disorder as a 1:1 aide and again for a student with autism
- Promoted to manage the writing and correction of incident reports requiring careful observation and detailed records of behavior

Research Assistant

University of Missouri, Columbia
(2018 - 2019)

- Ran participants through multiple part experiments by explaining tasks, administering questionnaires, collecting data, and later probing and debriefing participants
- Entered participant data and managed participant files in Excel and SPSS

CERTIFICATES

Mental Health First Aid Certified by the National Council for Behavioral Health

Multicultural Certificate from the University of Missouri, Columbia