Have a joyful and blessed National Nurses Week.

approximately 3,900 alumni are why we continue to be

The expertise of our faculty, support of our staff, passion to thank everyone connected with the School of Nursing.

celebrate.

our DNP program director, was inducted as one of the global immersions. Along with our students, SON staff health-related causes during visits to Capitol Hill, and MGH. And they do more than study. Over the past year, makes a difference in their home communities.

climate symposium in April drew more than 100 leadership of Dr. Patrice Nicholas. The country's first disproportionately from health disparities.

We also have much to celebrate at the School of

BSN student Colleen McCutcheon interacts with Harvard-Kent new Staff blood pressure screenings, hosted yoga therapy to the Navy Yard, with Instructor Kathy Sabo facilitating Safety Fair on for National Parks Service employees in Several Bachelor of Science in Nursing students in Back Row: NPS employees Vince Cutright and Steve Connor, Cliff Derius, and Emily Brouillette. Front Row: Students Carly Reynolds, and Brianna Ryan (CSD), Brittany Harris, assistant studies, accompanied by School of Nursing faculty traveled to the Dominican Republic for a Dominican Republic

Manipal Academy of Higher Education, MAHE-Faimer international conference was held in conjunction with Conference in India

Raquel Reynolds and Kathy Sabo, allowed the pupils care. She joins 17 other renowned nursing leaders commitment to service and influence in shaping health Nurses, who work in the country's

It is always gratifying to celebrate particularly those who suffer equity and access for all citizens, most trusted profession, continue to our faculty, staff, students, and

It is always gratifying to celebrate that ordinary people have the power to change.