From Emily Koella, MS-Nursing `20

The Pizza and Games Info Session hosted by Students for Racial Justice in Healthcare (SRJH) and Minorities Engaged in Dialogue and Service (MEDS) scheduled for Thursday, June 20, has been postponed. Stayed tuned for the new date and time, and please reach out to Student Life if you would like to learn more about these clubs.

(2) EAP News You Can Use:
Binge Drinking May Not Be What You Think (Institute Wide)
From Lisa Staffiere, LICSW, Partners Employee and Student Assistance Program

You’re at a celebration, having a great time. Three or four drinks are what everyone is having, no one seems drunk and the bar is open. Maybe you have one or two more drinks. You have a safe ride home. What’s the harm? Is that binge drinking? It may be difficult to determine what the limits are, but education is key. Please visit our website page on Binge Drinking to learn more. The EAP/SAP is a free and confidential resource available to IHP employees, students and household members. To speak confidentially with an EAP/SAP counselor, call (866) 724-4327.
