Communication Sciences and Disorders Scholarships:

AMBUCS Scholarships for Therapists awards students in a variety of programs, including physical therapy and speech language pathology. Awards range from $500 to $1,500 annually. Applications are only available online between January and April 15th, at www.ambucs.com.

The American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA) offers a publication called Guidelines for Graduate Scholarships or Research Grants. To order, call (301) 897-5700 x 3395. Another ASHA resource is called Funding Sources: A Guide for Future Audiologists, Speech-Language Pathologists and Speech, Language, and Hearing Scientists. For a copy, write: ASHA Product Sales, 10801 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD 20852-3279 or visit www.asha.org.

American Speech-Language-Hearing Foundation (ASHF) sponsors a graduate scholarship competition. Full-time graduate students in communication sciences and disorders can apply for scholarships of $4000. ASHF also lists additional financing information on their web site. For more information visit www.ASHFoundation.org.

GrantsNet www.grantsnet.org provides information about funding with resources such as grants and fellowships for graduate students.

The General Federation of Women’s Clubs of Massachusetts offers a $500 communication disorder/speech therapy scholarship to both male and female Massachusetts residents. For more information, call (508) 229-2023 or contact: Marilyn Perry - Scholarship Chairman, GFWC of Massachusetts, 245 Dutton Road, Box 679, Sudbury, MA 01776-0679.

The Metrowest Community Health Care Foundation awards a maximum of $2,000 in scholarships for students pursuing or advancing their degree in nursing and clinical professions. Applicants must live or work at least 15 hours per week in one of the 25 in the Metro West service area of Massachusetts. For more information, please call (508) 879-7625. or visit www.mchcf.org.

Progressus Therapy offers the following scholarships:

Future Leaders in school-based Speech-Language Pathology Scholarship. A $3000 scholarship will be awarded to a graduate student whose primary career interest is in providing speech-language services to children in school or early intervention settings following graduation and who has completed a project related to school-based therapy. The deadline for Fall is October 9, 2009 and for the spring is February 5, 2010.

School Therapy Career Vision Scholarship, in the amount of $3000, will be awarded to 2nd year graduate students whose primary career interest is in providing services to children in school or early intervention settings following graduation and who identifies the importance of strong mentoring relationships to prepare for leadership roles. The deadline is February 5, 2010.

Supporting Career Growth Through Mentoring scholarship is a $3000 scholarship offered by the National Black Association of Speech Language and Hearing and Progressus Therapy. It will be awarded to a graduate student whose primary career interest is in providing speech-language services to children in school or early intervention settings following graduation and who identifies the importance of strong mentoring relationships to prepare for leadership roles. The deadline is February 5, 2010.

For more information, visit http://www.progressustherapy.com/?page=capcsdscholarship

The South Norfolk County Association for Retarded Citizens, Inc. offers three $500 scholarships to graduate students in special education-related fields. For more information, visit www.snarc.org/scholarship.htm, email DWOOD@sncarc.org or call (781)762-4001.

Sertoma International offers $2500 scholarships for graduate students in speech pathology/audiology. Please write: Sertoma International, Sponsorships Dept, 1912 E. Meyer Blvd., Kansas City, MO 64132 or visit www.sertoma.org.