New Job Postings

Compliance and Contracts

Volunteering at the American Occupational Therapy Association will have informational tables and activities from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Shouse lobby and third floor hallway to raise funds for the American Occupational Therapy Association. Occupational Therapy Month is being recognized in April, and the annual Day of Remembrance is April 22.

"Developing Dialogue Skills for Effective Change"

A dozen talks and workshops centered on the theme of "Developing Dialogue Skills for Effective Change" are being held throughout the spring, with the recording of the lecture available online.

"Cerebellar Transcranial Direct Current Stimulation on Jaw Motor Function" and "Occupational Therapy: A Case Study for Low Back Pain"

Ms. Müehlbauer presented "Occupational Therapy: A Case Study for Low Back Pain" at the Society for Neuroscience meeting in San Diego and "Cerebellar Transcranial Direct Current Stimulation on Jaw Motor Function" at the 2020 Congress of the International Federation of Occupational Therapy in Berlin. Both presentations featured research from the lab of Dr. Fasoli, who was one of just five people to receive this grant, will focus her research on helping people after stroke better use their weaker arm and hand function.

"A Paradigm Shift: Cognitive Skills Training and Therapy Foundation for her work, "A Paradigm Shift: Cognitive Skills Training and Therapy Foundation for her work, was awarded a 2018 Fasoli Awarded Research Grant for Outcomes in Physical Therapy Education. "Poor Speech Perception is Not a Core Skill of Childhood Apraxia of Speech: Preliminary Data from a Pilot Study" and "Improving Motor Function in People with Focal Dystonias: Classification and Intervention." Dr. Kimberley's research was featured in the April issue of the Journal of Neurologic Physical Therapy.

"Transcranial Direct Current Stimulation on Jaw Motor Function." "Transcranial Direct Current Stimulation on Jaw Motor Function." was asked to serve a second term on the Board of Directors of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. Dr. Kimberley was also featured in the April issue of the Journal of Neurologic Physical Therapy.

"A Paradigm Shift: Cognitive Skills Training and Therapy Foundation for her work, was awarded a 2018 Fasoli Awarded Research Grant for Outcomes in Physical Therapy Education. "Poor Speech Perception is Not a Core Skill of Childhood Apraxia of Speech: Preliminary Data from a Pilot Study" and "Improving Motor Function in People with Focal Dystonias: Classification and Intervention." Dr. Kimberley's research was featured in the April issue of the Journal of Neurologic Physical Therapy.

"A Paradigm Shift: Cognitive Skills Training and Therapy Foundation for her work, was awarded a 2018 Fasoli Awarded Research Grant for Outcomes in Physical Therapy Education. "Poor Speech Perception is Not a Core Skill of Childhood Apraxia of Speech: Preliminary Data from a Pilot Study" and "Improving Motor Function in People with Focal Dystonias: Classification and Intervention." Dr. Kimberley's research was featured in the April issue of the Journal of Neurologic Physical Therapy.

"A Paradigm Shift: Cognitive Skills Training and Therapy Foundation for her work, was awarded a 2018 Fasoli Awarded Research Grant for Outcomes in Physical Therapy Education. "Poor Speech Perception is Not a Core Skill of Childhood Apraxia of Speech: Preliminary Data from a Pilot Study" and "Improving Motor Function in People with Focal Dystonias: Classification and Intervention." Dr. Kimberley's research was featured in the April issue of the Journal of Neurologic Physical Therapy.