Looking for Your Big Ideas
One Big Idea is enough to change the world. The 2018 International Marathon is your chance to be a catalyst for change.

We are accepting applications for our "IHP Sports Three" program. You can be part of this year's Team IHP, comprised of two alumni and one current student. The goal is to raise $100,000 for the Institute’s general endowment.

Team IHP is supported by the Boston Marathon, the American Institute of Architects, and the Boston Marathon Museum.

Join us as part of the Institute’s 40th anniversary and help us change the world.

Dignity and Respect on Campus
The School of Nursing on January 11 held its 14th Annual Champions Day. The event recognized faculty and staff who have demonstrated excellence in the area of Dignity and Respect.

The recipients were: Assistant Professor Kim Schoessow, Engelbrektsson, OTD '19, Alanna Shuman, MSN '18, Julie Wolfman, OTD '18. Back Row (L-R): SON Associate Professor Evans, OTD '19, Smoller, Chloe Ingalls '18, Ashley White '18, Michael Smolick '18, Courtney Owens '18, and Sarah Moy '18.

Supporting the YMCA
Students Go Global During Break
More than two dozen students participated in overseas service trips during the winter break.

Assistant Professor Kim Schoessow, traveled to India with the class of 2019 along with PT Assistant Professor Jane Baldwin travelled to Villa Nueva, Guatemala, with a team of IHP employees, under the direction of Assistant Professor Jane Baldwin.

Students served in various capacities, including providing both physical therapy and clinical care to over 300 patients under the care of local Guatemalan physical therapists and physical therapy students. The IHP students also gave educational presentations to the local therapists and therapy students.

Thanks from Harvard-Kent School
Program. Students participated in clinical postings as well as clinical care to over 300 patients under the care of local Guatemalan physical therapists and physical therapy students. The IHP students also gave educational presentations to the local therapists and therapy students.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute's Annual Research Symposium
The School of Nursing at IHP will host the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute's Annual Research Symposium on February 12-13, 2018. The event will be held at the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center.

The symposium will feature presentations on topics such as cancer research, treatment, and prevention.

Alumni Input
Alumni Input 2018: "Lower Extremity Injury Increases Risk of Developing Stroke?" Poster presentation at the meeting of the Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

Courses
Sennett, Jan

Calendar
Join us for the following events:

- February 12-13: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute's Annual Research Symposium
- February 19: President's Perspective

Feedback, Tips, Ideas, Etc.
Please forward items of interest to www.mghihp.edu.