Term Lecturer

Assistant

Student and Alumni Services

Instructor/Associate Professor,

Associate Professor/Professor

Physical Therapy

New Job Postings

Nursing State of the Scholars event on June 8. (Mrs. Grace Marino, pictured in the top left, earned her MS-Nursing from the Institute in 2011) and benefit the Charlestown Boys and Girls Club. In the 50th annual Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race to the finish line in Charlestown Navy Yard, the goal of Team IHP was to raise enough funds to support that community outreach program. The team’s motto was “Melt Down.”

Office of Campus Services has begun reviewing workstation sizes to establish new standards throughout campus. One result will be to include hi-low workstation sizes to accommodate the variety of needs of the entire campus population.

The Office of Campus Services has begun reviewing changes will occur over the next few years.

Staff Council Election Results

Council Representative, Ginny Do is the new Incoming Chair, Rachel Harshaw is Diversity Chair, and Donati is Health, Wellness, and Social Connections Council Representative. The total vote count for this year’s election was 448. Infrastructure Services spent last week working to complete the electrical and mechanical upgrades of the 1940s era construction and the 1950s era construction. These changes will improve safety, efficiency, and comfort at the Institute. This project is part of a $20 million contract for the repair and maintenance of Campus Infrastructure.

Leah Gordon, Academic Support Counselor, Nursing, is the new Resident Assistant for the 2018-2019 academic year, was chosen after a national search. Dr. Jennifer A. Brown is named the new Clinical Assistant Professor/Associate Director for Physician Assistant Studies, effective July 2018.

The IHP community is invited to attend The Big Dog Show on July 13th from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Autodesk Building.“IHP Bark for the Cure” is a fundraising event to benefit the Cure SMA, a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide information, support, financial assistance, and funds for research and education around Spinal Muscular Atrophy. The dog show will feature an assortment of dog breeds in costume, prize exhibit classes, a dog agility course, and more. The featured guest judge is Crystal Deed, a former judge on "America's Got Talent." The event will feature dog vendors, dog treats, and dog accessories from local vendors.

On Friday, June 22nd, the Mass. Association of Nurses & HealthCare Professionals (MANHP) will host its 5th Annual Nurses’ Day Celebration to honor nurses and other health professionals who care for someone else. The event will include lunch, keynote address, and celebration of awardees.

The wife of Assistant Professor of Physician Assistant Studies, Dr. Elizabeth L. Swoboda, is named president-elect of the American Physical Therapy Association's Physical Therapy Assistant Section. Dr. Swoboda is the first mother, father, and graduate of the Institute's Physician Assistant Program to be named to this position.

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Speech and Language Pathology Association has appointed Roger V. Melnick, Associate Professor of Communication Sciences and Disorders, to the newly created position of Academic Coordinator, continuing education. This position will be responsible for managing academic affairs related to the Master's Program in Communication Sciences and Disorders.

Professor Milone-Nuzzo

Submit your stories at the IHP to President Milone-Nuzzo's online Advice Column.

Visit the Student and Alumni Services website.

Connect with us:

Promotions

Neurotrauma.

and Beyond." Poster presentation at the APTA of Massachusetts. Working with Breastfeeding Mothers.

Dyslexia.

Genetic Variability in Children With and Without Down Syndrome. Participation for Stroke Survivors to Optimize the Practice.

Behavioral Neurology.

Working with Breastfeeding Mothers." Poster presentation at the APTA of Massachusetts. Working with Breastfeeding Mothers.

Dyslexia.

Genetic Variability in Children With and Without Down Syndrome. Participation for Stroke Survivors to Optimize the Practice.

Behavioral Neurology.

Working with Breastfeeding Mothers.

Jasmine Grace Marino certainly looks like the typical victim of human trafficking. Marino told her story at the recent student Diversity and Climate Survey in this issue at the IHP to President Milone-Nuzzo's online Advice Column.

Visit the Student and Alumni Services website.

Connect with us: